learn from each other. It helps grant seekers research funding sources and keep apprised of current grant opportunities and provides programs and activities that link grantmakers and grant seekers, allowing them to share information and build relationships.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

2020 centered around responding to emergent issues effecting the state
due to the corona virus pandemic.

We also deepened our commitment to understanding racial equity with a session on how racism shows up in policy and what we can do about it featuring a historian from the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture and an Indigenous historian from the Abbe Museum.

We continued our effort to raise awareness around Census 2020 and the role that funders can play to help assure a fair, accurate and complete count and supported the Maine Census Fund. Grants distributed as part of this fund in 2019 became flexible funding for operating support during the pandemic as the group recognized that initial proposed plans for outreach had to shift to meet new safety requirements driven by the pandemic.

MPC continues to encourage and support funder collaborations in early childhood, education, oral health and immigrant/refugee communities while also serving as the fiscal agent for the Environmental Funders Network (EFN). These groups exchange information, explore new ideas and consider joint/aligned funding opportunities. We also convened grant managers and worked with PEAK Grantmaking to deliver programming around equitable grantmaking practices.

MPC offers services to help nonprofits enhance their grant seeking skills and potential such as monthly tutorials, monthly electronic grant advisories and the Directory of Maine Grantmakers. To celebrate the release of this year's annual giving report, MPC hosted an informational webinar to dig into the reports data and trends.

The Maine Philanthropy Center promotes broad public awareness of philanthropy in a variety of ways including the publication of an annual Maine giving report, and a public website with local and national data about charitable foundations. Our Get on the Map project with funders is designed to further enhance our philanthropy reports by improving the accuracy and availability of current, detailed grant making data across our region.

MPC is affiliated with the Foundation Center, a national nonprofit that tracks foundation information. Through this agreement, MPC maintains on-site library resources including public access to the Foundation Center's searchable national database of foundations. In 2020, due to limited in-person engagement, MPC provided this service virtually to all of our associate members, as well as pivoted to online Grant Research Tutorials. In addition, MPC members can directly access the Online Directory of Maine Grant makers, a database of over 350 funders that are active in Maine.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6:

Philanthropic advisors are those who are providing services and consultation to funders, both organizations and individuals. Members in all categories receive the benefits of membership including access to programs and online resources.

The MPC Finance Committee and MPC President review the draft 990 at fall meeting or as soon as available and make suggestions for corrections, if needed. The MPC Executive Committee reviews this draft and recommends a final 990. The MPC Board then reviews the final draft, makes recommendations if needed and then votes to approve the final version for filing with the recommended changes adopted.

Organization's conflict of interest policy each September and self-disclose any potential conflict of interest by completing and signing a disclosure statement. The reported conflicts are reviewed by both the MPC President and the MPC Board Chair.

In the case of an actual or possible conflict or appearance of conflict, it is the responsibility of the affected MPC Board, committee or staff member to disclose it prior to any related decisions being made by or for MPC. In cases involving a board or committee member, once such disclosure has been made the remaining board or committee members will determine whether or not there is a conflict of interest; if they determine that there is a conflict of interest, the director or committee member involved shall not vote or use personal influence on the matter, and the minutes of the meeting shall reflect such disclosure as well as that the individual involved did not vote; however, if so requested by a majority of the other members present, may remain in the room to answer questions of a factual nature that may assist the board or committee in its deliberations. In cases involving a member of MPC staff, the MPC President (or if the President has the potential conflict, the Chair of the Board) will determine whether or not there is a conflict of interest. An individual who is unsure whether his or her circumstances involve an actual conflict should err on the side of disclosure.
